HOTELS IN JERICOACOARA

Vila kalango

If Jericoacoara is a natural spectacle, Vila Kalango is certainly the best place from which admire it. Opened 1999, the pousada is placed inside a 5000m² garden surrounded and delimited by palms and cashews, located in the shelter of sea and next to the dunes, from which it is possible to admire the most beautiful sunset of the Brazilian North-East.

The construction is built and decorated using typical materials of the region, which flatter and add to it a typical rustic appearance. The charming and comfortable service makes Vila Kalango the best hotel in Jeri and the one of the best 10 hotels in the whole Brazil.

Rooms: 24 rooms of different kind: standard, comfort, bungalows, palisade, comfort palisade.

Facilities: swimming-pool, bar, brazilian restaurant, minibar in the room, air conditioner, shower with hot water, massage room, tv, internet, valet service, deposit and rental of windsurf, kitesurf and kayak boards.

Pousada Rancho do Peixe

Placed in Praia do Preá, 12 Km far from Jericoacoara Village (reachable in just 15 minutes by buggy) in a 200.000 m² palms farm, with sand dunes and natural vegetation 700 m far from the sea, it is the kitesurf and windsurf lovers paradise. The plan, belonging to the architect Gui Mattos, follows a simple and rustic style, without sacrificing comfort and modernity. Built with local materials such as wood and straw, it creates a perfect fusion and integration between guests and nature, whose respect is one of the most important feature of the pousada.

It has been built since only 2 years and a half, Rancho do Peixe is still one of the 150 best hotels in Brazil.

Rooms: 16 rooms in all; eight placed in the shelter of the sea, with a beautiful view of Praia do Preá, eight placed in the garden, surrounded by palms with view on the see. Both the bungalow types cover 80 m² and can accommodate 4 persons.
